

Results from the two G&B striking competitions held in the Tewkesbury Branch on Saturday 18th April

Croome

Judged by Jack Pease

Six bell competition held at Twyning where Bristol Rural were represented by Coalpit Heath, conducted by Russell Scudamore. We came 4th out of 9 bands and the judge's comments included: "Good use of practice time. Even striking. A strong competitive ringing speed plus a clear open hand stroke lead"

Results:

Place, Band, Faults

1st, Cirencester, 8

2nd, Tewkesbury, 9

3rd, Bristol, 10

4th, Bristol Rural, 12

5th, Cheltenham, 14

6th, Wotton-under-Edge, 17

7th, Gloucester, 21.5

8th, Swindon, 27

9th, Stroud, 32

Left to right, tenor to treble: Gary Crisp, Russell Scudamore, Dave Clark, Alison Holliday, Elaine Scudamore and Catherine White-Horne, with guest appearance by Lando the dog.

Penn

Judged by Annie Hall and Matthew Tosh

Eight bell competition held at Ashchurch. Bristol Rural were represented by ringers from Almondsbury, Coalpit Heath, Frenchay, Thornbury and Tytherington, conducted by Matt Johnson. We came 6th out of 7 and the judges' comments included: "Good use of practice time and immediately settled well into changes. The judges felt for us when the method mistake hit in the third lead but we worked well as a team to recover which was a joy to hear. Settled again and well struck thereafter".

Results:

Place, Band, Accuracy

1st, Cheltenham, 93%

2nd, Tewkesbury, 89%

3rd, Bristol, 88%

4th, Wotton-under-Edge, 84%

5th, Cirencester, 78%

6th, Bristol Rural, 74%

7th, Stroud, 66%

Left to right: Catherine White-Horne (treble), Steve Crane (5), Geoff Pick (2), Linda Pick (3), Alison Holliday (6), Elaine Scudamore (4), Matt Johnson (7) and Russell Scudamore (tenor). Once again we were ably supported by Lando.

That's all!

Catherine White-Horne